Contemporary Country
Chalmers, Emily

254 x 216 mm
160 pages

ISBN 9781845978228 - $34.95 PB

QTY:

Contemporary Country is about taking the essence of country style (a way of living that is gentle, natural and grounded) and giving it a contemporary makeover. Emily Chalmers and Ali Hanan begin by looking at the elements that make up the style. They explore the use of natural materials and the way in which structural features such as beams or staircases can be exposed so that living spaces flow together. They look at furniture, lighting, textiles, flooring and colour. The book then examines key areas of the home, from kitchens to sleeping spaces, and shows you how the look works with the help of over 200 inspiring photographs.

Thrifty Chic
Bauwens and Campbell

254 x 216 mm
160 pages

ISBN 9781906525231 - $59.95 HB

QTY:

When it comes to creating a home, Thrifty Chic shows you how to reuse and restore, revive and revamp, and recycle and reclaim, in order to create a stylish yet individual home without spending a small fortune. There are projects for jazzing up old wooden furniture for both house and garden, and suggestions for pulling together mismatched items into cohesive schemes. The all-important finishing touches are covered in detail, and get insider's tips on what to look for at antique markets and in charity shops, and how to care for and restore your bargain purchases.

Dream Homes Country
Einsiedel & Thornycroft

250 x 250 mm
352 pages

ISBN 9781858944746 - $75.00 HB

QTY:

With its perfect combination of new and old, romance, nostalgia and comfort, country style has universal appeal. From a converted barn in the English Cotswolds to a Mallorcan finca, and from a Russian dacha to a grand Swiss villa, the 100 fabulous interiors featured in this book will provide endless inspiration for city dwellers seeking to escape the fast pace of urban living, and committed countryside lovers contemplating the restoration or refurbishment of their rural idyll.

Colour Design File
Geddes-Brown, Leslie

244 x 169 mm
144 pages

ISBN 9781845978266 - $45.00 HB

QTY:

In The Colour Design File every aspect of colour is expertly covered: using colour discusses the properties and qualities of the different colours, how colours work together and how colour is affected by light, texture and scale, and neutrals and naturals showcases a decorative palette from white to black, encompassing cream to chocolate brown and every shade of grey. The colours takes you on a journey through the spectrum. Each colour is shown in real homes: alone, in a dazzling array of shades, and with other colours. Useful information includes an address list of great places for finding colour and space for notes.

Old House New Home

Byam Shaw, Ros

How do you show off the best features of a home built for another age, while adapting it for modern living? In Old House New Home, Ros Byam Shaw looks at the many different ways we can furnish and arrange an old building to suit today's needs, whether it is a terraced townhouse or a converted factory. Exploring properties as diverse as a small Victorian townhouse and a former country dairy, she reveals how the design of each home has been reinvented for the 21st century. This book is divided into a series of key styles: 'Period Piece', 'Urban Chic', 'Rustic', 'Recycled Spaces' and 'Country House'.

Huts, Havens & Hideaways

Denbury, Jo

Far more than a showcase of aspirational getaways, Huts, Havens and Hideaways is about discovering your personal sanctuary - be it an Airstream camper in the desert or a treehouse at the bottom of the garden - somewhere to escape to that is all your own. A place of escape is something we all dream about. We live in an age when technology moves faster than we do, where noise levels are high, air is polluted - and our homes are often in the centre of this furore. No wonder we have a desire to escape and be free! Huts, Havens and Hideaways is about making that dream come true.

Great Estates

Scheller, William

Skillfully written and richly illustrated, Great Estates looks into the lives and fortunes of the ambitious individuals beginning with the colonial era. This book follows the restless careers of America's most brilliant and driven merchants, industrialists, and financiers. With the twentieth century came fresh opportunities: automobiles, motion pictures, broadcasting, publishing and retailing on a massive scale, and high technology. Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Ford are here, as well as J.P. Morgan, Howard Hughes, Malcolm Forbes, Warren Buffett, Steven Spielberg, and Bill Gates.

Small Spaces

Tanqueray, Rebecca

Living space is a precious commodity. Few of us have as much space as we'd like, whether we live in a studio or have a key room that's just too small. Rebecca Tanqueray starts with Making the Most of Your Space. She presents compact homes that show how clever use of colour, lighting or other elements makes for a spacious feel. In The Zones, Rebecca explores the organization of space, including areas for living, cooking, working, bathing and sleeping, and how to make your home multi-functional. Solutions tackles elements crucial to the compact home - including dividing space, using colour, lighting and texture, and clever storage and furniture.

Tiny Houses

Zeiger, Mimi

There's a new trend in sustainable living architecture called "micro-green living" - literally the creation of tiny homes where people challenge themselves to live "greener" lives. Tiny Houses brings together an international collection of over thirty prefab homes and living concepts under 1,000 square-feet, ranging from tree houses and compact dwellings to floating houses. The book presents conceptual building plans, detailed illustrations, and vivid photographs of the homes, the architects, and the proud enthusiasts who live in them. There are essays and personal stories of how the compact space has affected their relationships with others and the world around them.

Interior Design Directory, The

Wilhide, Elizabeth

The Interior Design Directory is a comprehensive guide to the very latest in materials technology, which has entered a whole new dimension in the last few years. The book is divided into four parts, opening with a section on classic natural and composite materials, the next two sections deal with crossovers from industrial to domestic - glass, concrete and metal to rubber and tiles. The final section is devoted to sustainable materials and looks at wood alternatives, eco glass, recycled fabric and natural textiles. Throughout the book, smart design, photographs of contemporary interiors and detailed close-ups of each material make this as visually inspiring as it is unfliningly practical.

Ranch Houses
Weingarten and Howard

With its archetypal open plan and reverence of indoor-outdoor living, the Ranch house is at the very heart of the California dream. Examples of the type have been called ranchos, ranchers, and California ramblers. From the 1797 Rancho Los Alamitos of Long Beach to such contemporary homes as the Miller Residence of Corte Madera, Ranch Houses unveils the great variety and the very finest examples of this multifaceted form. Including the work of such architectural luminaries as Cliff May, Richard Neutra, John Lautner, and Charles Moore, Ranch Houses is an essential resource for architects, home owners, and all those who aspire to the indoor/outdoor lifestyle that is the California Dream.
