Birds

Fisher, Jeffrey

152 x 197 mm
96 pages

In the simply titled Birds, internationally renowned Australian artist Jeffrey Fisher captures their timeless elegance and beauty in 46 magnificent handpainted small portraits. Each spread features a different bird in Fisher's signature style, paired with thoughtful musings on the species' history and lore. There are recognizable and rare birds in equal measure. The Great Spotted Kiwi, the European Bee-Eater and the Kakapo are portrayed in all their splendor. Unlike traditional bird guides, this is a gorgeous art object and a perfect addition to any bird lover's bookshelf. A charming and beautiful book to own for its beauty and interesting and informative text.

Sleepyhead's Bedside Companion, The Coughlan, Sean

203 x 132 mm
272 pages

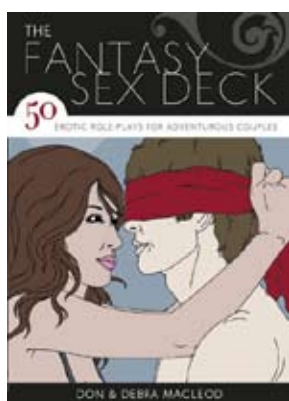

This is a quirky, amusing, information-packed book for all lovers of sleep. It looks at the history, culture, folklore, language and science of sleep. Did you know that the siesta was once a British tradition? Does counting sheep work? Does booze help or hinder sleep? Why are so many dreams the same and what are the archetypal recurring dreams? Sleep is there to be enjoyed. It's not worth getting into bed for anything else.

Furverts
Cogliantry, Michael

20 pages

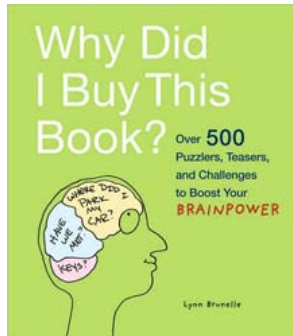

The most controversial and hilarious board book to hit the shelves since, well... ever. There's no polite way to put it, Furverts features 10 spreads of fake furry animals screwing. Capitalising on the 'Furries' trend, photographer Michael Cogliantry captured furrines in various sex positions in Las Vegas hotel rooms: An elephant and a donkey against a window overlooking the Vegas strip, a chicken and a fox doing it doggie-style, a penguin and a squirrel getting it on. The fun board book features a patch of fur on the cover to give readers a tactile piece of this illicit world. This is a hilarious, shocking, and thoroughly entertaining peek into the craziest things furrines do.
