24 pages

ISBN 9781405245098 - $9.95 PB

QTY:

A story about sewing, economizing, recycling, and sharing, this book follows a special party dress that a grandmother makes for her granddaughter, who narrates the story. Each year she alters the dress to accommodate the year's growth, until the narrator decides she can't keep her dress forever and so passes it on to her little cousin.

What happens when you cross a birthday party shopping list with Santa's Christmas catalogue, a witch's child stewrecipe and an alien's spacecraft repair inventory? The answer: One amazing day at the department store. In this madcap visual treat, a wonderfully eclectic mix of shoppers dash around the bustling store, occasionally crossing paths with hilarious and exciting repercussions. The question is: will everyone get what they want? Will everyone make it out alive? And will everyone make it to Jo-Jo's party? You'll just have to wait and see What's In Store.
